Correspondence:

- Flu Clinics will be posted in the Borough Hall & on the Community Bulletin Board

Report of Officers:

President:

- Ms. Levinson reported that there will be 3 large “mock” clinics on 9/13/09 in Long Branch, Middletown & Colts Neck for the H1N1 groups targeted: pregnant women, health care providers, first responders, school age children up to 18.
- It may be mandatory for school age children to be vaccinated to the H1N1 has not been determined yet.
- Monmouth County Regional Health Commission working with the County with respect to the H1N1.
- Senior citizens not a priority at this time since they probably have already been exposed to the virus
- Seasonal flu shot does not give any resistance to the H1N1
- Ms. Levinson reported that she met with Mr. Seaman with respect to the budget and she advised that there is still money left for the community newsletter & education

- Dues for the National Board of Health is $95.00 and the NJ Local Boards of Health is $95.00 for 2010 and must be paid in November of 2009
- Ms. Levinson reminded all board members who have not received their identification cards to do so.
