Salute to Flag

Mayor Burden led the Salute to the Flag.

Resolution #2011-58A (Hire Full Time Probationary Patrolman, Derek R. Myers, as a Probationary Patrolman in the Police Department)

Councilman Menapace read the resolution into the record. A motion was made by Councilman Dodge, seconded by Councilman Pellegrino to approve Resolution #2011-58A to allow the Police Department to hire full time Probationary Patrolman, Derek R. Myers. Councilman Menapace stated that the Borough was extremely lucky to have Officer Meyer join our outstanding police force. Mr. Menapace noted that Officer Meyer previously served in Long Branch, New Jersey, where he gained experience and an excellent record. Councilman Menapace stated that Officer Myer is a quality man for a quality department. The motion was approved by Roll Call Vote with all members present voting yes.

Resolution #2011-59A (Hire Full Time Probationary Patrolman, Tracy J. Polk, as a Probationary Patrolman in the Police Department)

Councilman Menapace read the resolution into the record. A motion was made by Councilman Pellegrino, seconded by Councilman DeSalvo to approve Resolution #2011-59A to allow the Police Department to hire full time Probationary Patrolman, Tracy J. Polk. Councilman Menapace noted that Officer Polk is also from the Long Branch Police Department and gained excellent experience on the street and comes to Shrewsbury with an excellent record and reputation from that department. Again Mr. Menapace stated that Officer Polk is another quality Officer joining our quality department and he welcomed both new officers. The motion was approved by Roll Call Vote with all members present voting yes.

Swearing in of Officer Derek R. Myers

The Mayor called Officer Myers forward. His father and wife accompanied Officer Myers to the front of the room. His father held the bible as the Mayor had Officer Myers repeat the Oath of Office. Officer Myers wife pinned his badge on his uniform. Pictures were taken of the Officer with his family and the Mayor.

Swearing in of Officer Tracy J. Polk

The Mayor called Officer Polk forward. His mother held the bible as Officer Polk repeated the Oath of Office after the Mayor. Officer Polk's mother pinned his badge on his uniform. Pictures were taken of the Officer with his family and the Mayor.

The Mayor asked if there were any other matters to come before Council on this evening and as there was none the Mayor adjourned the meeting.
